IMMIGRATION: THE GREAT DEBATE

By Mathew Di Salvo

the general election on May 7, in which the town's MP, and the UK's Prime Minister, will be chosen.

Mr Stone told the Observer: "How and why are the French in such a mess with the immigrants in Calais? Why is Britain being pulled into a morass of misery, which is on the other side of the channel, in another country?"

"I say the French, as this out-of-control area seems to stem from their inability to have managed a relatively simple and straightforward problem of illegal migrants."

There has been a surge in migrants fleeing war, famine and disease in their home countries over the past few months via ports like Calais to enter Britain.

UKIP'S election candidate for Basingstoke has stirred up a storm after blaming France for UK immigration problems.

Alan Stone, whose name is in the hat to become Basingstoke's MP, has come under fire from his rivals for attacking France in the week war alliances with the country were marked for Remembrance Day.

The row comes exactly six months ahead of Chineham to get school expansion

A £3MILLION project to expand Great Binfields Primary School in Chineham has been unveiled.

Plans for the school to almost double in size are being put together by Hampshire County Council before a planning application is submitted.

On Monday a letter was sent to residents telling them about the expansion.

Headteacher Jules Rogers, said: "Although a planning application has not yet been submitted, I am very excited because it is going to bring more children to the school and more expertise of staff - highly qualified staff.

By Mathew Di Salvo
mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"We won't lose the community feel we have at the school. These are very exciting times."

The proposal is part of Hampshire County Council's £149m school building programme.

The school, in Binfields Farm Lane, holds 265 pupils but after the proposed work it would be able to hold 420.

It would introduce 60 places in Year R (reception) from September 2016, rather than 30. After the expansion the school will have 14 classrooms of 30 pupils.

Last year, temporary buildings were put on the site to hold two extra classes - 60 pupils in total.

Ward councillor Martin Biermann said: "It is a popular school and it is oversubscribed."

"But I think residents may feel it will be chaos getting to the school as traffic will get worse - the roads will get busier."

But Councillor Paul Miller, also of Chineham, said: "One thing we have been concerned about with household development is schools in the area, so this is absolutely essential."

"The local schools will need to absorb pupils."

"A baby boom is expected and with the housing growth expected in the next 15 years we are going to need more primary places."

"I don't think traffic concerns are significant," he added.

Building work is planned to start in 2015 and finish by August 2016 in time for the start of the school term.

A drop in session is due to take place at the school on Monday, November 24, between 5pm and 7.30pm where county council officers will be discussing the plans with residents.

Jane Austen zombie filming in Old Basing

• Actor Matt Smith

FORMER Doctor Who actor, Matt Smith, is in Old Basing shooting a zombie film this week.

Basing House, England's largest Tudor residence, yesterday confirmed filming is taking place.

He is shooting for Pride and Prejudice and Zombies, an adaptation of a novel of the same name.

It is parody of Jane Austen's 19th century novel, which combines romance with modern zombie fiction.

Barton's Mill restaurant tweeted on Friday: "Still filming Pride and Prejudice and Zombies... Basing House transformed into a graveyard for the shoot."

And Basingstoke Twitter user Harry Rice tweeted: "I want to be an extra in this film!"

The film is being directed by Burr Steers, who directed the Zac Efron film, 17 Again, and Downton Abbey star, Lily James, is acting alongside Matt Smith.

Tadley youth centre plans approved

TADLEY'S new youth centre is set to be open in late 2015 after planning permission was approved on Friday, November 7.

A planning application was submitted to Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council in June for a new two-storey building behind the Tadley Community Centre in Newchurch Road.

Building work is due to start in the spring 2015.

The project will cost just under £1million.

In October 2013, architects worked with around 70 children and teenagers to find out what they wanted.

Tadley councillor Robert Tate said: "The Tadley community is somewhat far away from Basingstoke so it is a welcome opportunity to create something that will serve the youth here."

New hospital

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: The site for a new multi-million critical treatment hospital has been confirmed near Dummer, after the Observer revealed the plans last week.

Councillors said the location had been chosen ahead of an official meeting on Thursday.

North Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust confirmed on Monday a greenfield site on the north side of the A30, near junction 7 of the M3, has been chosen for the 24-hour emergency trauma clinic.

Councillor Rob Golding, of Oakley and North Waltham, said: "It won't be in the Dummer parish but it is very visible from Dummer, you can see it from across the motorway."

"The reason why they are doing it is very clear in medical terms, we are just waiting on details now, the important thing is to try and get it right."

Tesco plans

BASINGSTOKE: Tesco has submitted a planning application to Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council for a new store and homes development on the former Smiths Industries site in Winchester Road, Brighton Hill.

The plans are for 48 one, two and three-bedroom homes and a Tesco without a pharmacy, post office, optician or travel agents.

Over 200 new jobs will be created as part of the project.

Tesco submitted an application back in 2011 but the plans were rejected.

In the new plans, the store is a third smaller.

The council will make a decision in 2015.

Parability sport

BASINGSTOKE: A new parability activity and social group is launching at St Andrew's Church in Western Way, South Ham on Saturday.

Those who attend will take part in free exercise sessions with a qualified coach.

The event will run from 10am to midday.

The Mayor of Basingstoke will also be there to meet people taking part on the day.

Town honours soldiers' sacrifice with dignity

IT COULD not have been a clearer day to honour the fallen on Remembrance Sunday in Basingstoke.

A parade of soldiers from the Old Basing branch of the Royal British Legion (RBL) marched to St Mary's Parish Church where crowds of 400 gathered to pay their respects with two minutes silence and a service.

Churches across Basingstoke marked the sacrifice of thousands in conflicts worldwide.

Old Basing RBL Chairman Rick Bourne, who organised

By Mathew Di Salvo

mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

the St. Mary's service, said: "We could not believe our luck."

"It was a massive turnout - the church was completely full."

"We made it a great day for remembering the fallen. It lasted the right amount of time and the service was perfect."

"So was the weather."

Basingstoke Cadets and Scout groups also stepped up to pay their respects, and children from Four Lanes Junior School in Chineham laid remembrance poppies and poems they had written on the memorial.

Tony Tuck, 70, of Paddock Fields, has been attending the service for 30 years, and said: "It was an excellent service. It always is thoroughly moving."

A total of £700 was collected.

Reverend Alex Battey, who held the service, said: "All in all it was a solemn and moving day."

A Chinook helicopter from RAF Odiham flew 250ft over the church after a two minutes silence.

It was one of 12 venues it flew over in 10 minutes - including the annual remembrance service at the town's war memorial in London Road.

A bugler started a two minutes silence for crowds of hundreds before the Chinook flypast.

This year marks the 100th anniversary of the start of the First World War, 70 years since the D-Day landings, and the year Britain ended its combat role in Afghanistan after 13 years.

Ukip under fire for immigration comments

Mr Stone added: "They all tell of stories of hardships in getting to Europe, some on leaky over-filled boats, others tell stories of traffickers who have taken every penny and then dumped them to fend for themselves in foreign lands."

"We can feel sorry for the individual but together they have become an unruly mob."

But Labour's parliamentary candidate for Basingstoke, Paul Harvey, bit back: "Starting an anti-French debate when we have just commemorated the 100th anniversary of the start of the First World War where we fought side by side with our French allies is appalling."

He added: "It is also the 70th anniversary of D-Day this year when we joined with our allies to liberate France and Europe from the Nazis. We must not ignore the horrendous situation in which immigrants are living."

Liberal Democrat parliamentary candidate Janice Spalding added: "Ukip simply blaming the French is far too simplistic and shows that they do not have any realistic solutions on immigration."

"This is an international problem that requires international solutions, not cheap rhetoric in England."

Basingstoke Conservative MP Maria Miller said: "Britain is a tolerant nation but we are now seeing the fall out of Labour's failed immigration policies."

She added: "I want to see people who come to our country contributing to our economy."

The dispute played out between Basingstoke candidates resonates between party leaders on a national level.

Ukip made big gains to win this year's European elections in May and its first MP in October.

However it is uncertain if voters used the party as a protest vote to express dissatisfaction with the EU or if they will become key players in parliament from May.

So far Mrs Miller for Conservatives, Dr Harvey for Labour, Ms Spalding for Liberal Democrats and Mr Stone for Ukip have stepped forward as MP candidates.

New strategy to give town's youth a voice

YOUNG people in Basingstoke could soon play a part in the borough council's decision-making process.

As part of the borough's draft youth strategy, recommended for approval at a meeting today, the council plans to include young people in decision making.

It could mean young people would have to be consulted on council-led projects for new facilities and other schemes.

The draft youth strategy, written after a consultation with young people earlier this year, sets out the council's aims over the next three years.

Portfolio holder for partnerships, Cathy Osselton, said in the strategy: "We want young people to have opportunities to express their views; flourish through education, employment and training; have activities that meet their interests and have access to information to enable them to lead healthy and rewarding lives."

Over the last three years 17 new youth clubs have been built and five community centres extended in Basingstoke and Deane to build youth wings.

Over £100,000 external funding was secured for youth activities, and 14,500 young people participated in the council's Streetz programme.

The council is pledging to engage young people and support neighbourhood groups to set up a local youth forum.

The meeting is at the council's civic offices in London Road from 6.30pm.

Ban on smoking at kids' play areas

• Signs like the one at Victoria Park in Halton, near Liverpool, could be put up at children's playgrounds in Basingstoke (photo from Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council report)

SMOKING could be banned in children's playgrounds across Basingstoke if the council agrees to a new policy today.

It would not be enforced by law but as a voluntary code branded as compulsory by signs.

The model which could be introduced is based on other areas including Cheshire and Merseyside.

Councillors at a community, environment and partnerships committee meeting are due to decide on the plans in the London Road offices from 6.30pm.

A report by council officers said: "We have been approached by residents who feel that given we ban glass, dogs, bikes and litter from children's play parks, it is shocking that cigarettes are not included on this list."

"They feel that there are demonstrable, scientifically proven damages to passive smoking, particularly among children, and the lack of a ban on smoking in children's play areas is ultimately a failure to protect our youth."

In 2006 the smoking ban was introduced, however it does not apply to open areas.

But council's can introduce a "voluntary code".

It does not have a legal effect but can be encouraged through signs.

Basingstoke and Deane

By Mathew Di Salvo

mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Borough Council favours this method as opposed to introducing a bylaw, which could be complex as it needs approval from the secretary of state.

Councillor Paul Miller, of Chichester, will be attending the meeting, and said: "It is accepted that second hand smoke is a threat."

"If the ban is reasonable, by putting a sign at a reasonable distance around the play area, then people would know where they stand."

"All it takes is a little sign around the area and then everyone - including smokers - could be happy."

He added: "In our community we should try to encourage it as a policy of our council."

"It is less intrusive to the system than introducing a by law which can be complicated."

Labour Councillor Vivienne Washbourne, of Popley, brought it to the attention of the council earlier this year.

She said: "Other councils have been able to do this easily."

"We really just want to put a polite reminder around the areas which will hopefully stop learnt behaviours in young children and prevent passive smoking."

Town charity praised in Westminster

A BASINGSTOKE charity supporting people with learning difficulties was used as an example in Westminster by MP Maria Miller last week.

She referenced Basingstoke Mencap for its new project getting people into work during the Department of Work and Pensions questions on November 3.

Mrs Miller asked minister of state for disabled people, Mark Harper, what support is available to those with learning difficulties to help them find jobs.

Basingstoke Mencap set up its Aspire scheme two months ago to work with local businesses to find jobs for people with learning difficulties.

Mrs Miller said: "We need more employers to see the valuable role people with learning disabilities do have in business."

"Just nine per cent of people with learning disabilities in Hampshire are in employment below the national average."

"Basingstoke Mencap's Aspire project is a vital project focussing on addressing this."

Development manager Catherine McLeod said: "This kind of partnership is a great example of how we can work together to improve opportunities for even the most under-employed in our communities."

The charity's job club is held every Wednesday at The Orchard in White Hart Lane from 9.30am to 11.30am.

One Direction show love for Popley melons

A BASINGSTOKE family business was able to show off its melons to superstars One Direction last week.

Popley-based Carving Magic, which makes intricate fruit displays for special occasions, were asked by ITV to carve the faces of the world's biggest boy band into melons.

During an ITV This Morning interview with Alison Hammond last Wednesday the band were presented with the fruits.

Alison asked One Direction: "Do you like my melons?"

To which global superstar Harry Styles said: "I bloody love your melons."

Carving Magic made the melons by using photos of the band's faces.

They converted them into black and white images to use as templates before getting to work with

By Mathew Di Salvo

mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

carving instruments.

Carver Andy Walsh said: "Having One Direction hold our carvings was a bit surreal and having Harry Styles say he liked them was the biggest compliment."

"We cannot get any more publicity than One Direction and This Morning, so it is great."

Carving Magic, made up of husband and wife Andy and Sue Walsh and Sue's brother Harry Styles said: "I bloody love your melons."

Carving Magic made the melons by using photos of the band's faces. Andy said: "It was a big job. It took about one hour per band member, and at the last minute Louis' head burst!"

"We had five days to do the job so it was very manic," he added.

After they donated the melon props, a member of the production team for Loose Women phoned them up, asking for a pumpkin carving of Janet Street Porter's face, which was used on the show.

Now the business, founded five years ago, is finding it hard to keep up with the demand for their sculpted fruit and veg displays or workshops.

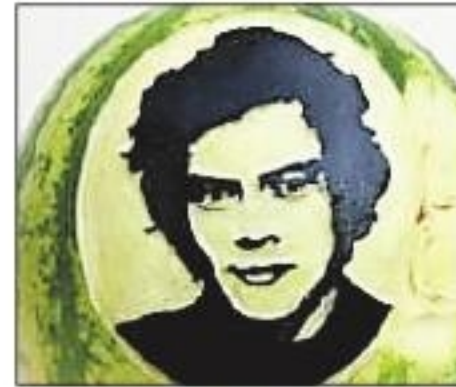

"We are very lucky, we have been blessed by people constantly contacting us," said Mark, who juggles fruit cutting with being a full-time engineer.

"This is now getting in the way of work - I have to take holidays for weddings and workshops, we are having to turn people down."

"It has been a good year and it is only going to get better."

TV talent show winner to perform for Queen

By Mathew Di Salvo

mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

GROWING up, Michael Auger used to practise singing around his Alton home.

And tomorrow the 24-year-old Britain's Got Talent winner will be performing not in front of his family, but the Queen.

Alongside four fellow members of boy band Collabro, the 24-year-old will take to the stage for the Royal Variety Performance at the London Palladium in the capital's West End.

Collabro is among the line-up with Ed Sheeran, Ellie Golding, Demi Lovato, and Alfie Boe for the show, to be aired on ITV in December.

"We really want to show the audience that we are up with all the other greats who will be performing there," Michael said.

"It is going to be a great production, we hope to give a great performance and impress all the people who voted for us."

The operatic group were handed a golden ticket to join the big names after wowing crowds of millions on TV to win the Britain's Got Talent finals in June.

Their five-month interlude has been somewhat of a whirlwind for the former Alton College student, who joined with Richard, Matt, Thomas and Jamie to form Collabro.

The band has signed to Simon

Cowell's record label Syco – the same label pop giants One Direction are signed to.

And the group have announced a 23-date tour for 2015, special edition release of their album on December 8, and a book to be released on Mother's Day next year, March 14.

Michael said: "The tour is 90 per cent sold out."

"We just want to keep making people happy really."

"Since winning Britain's Got Talent, we have got a really solid foundation – a great following of fans."

Although the band are hoping to release new material for their fans during their tour next year, Michael promised their signature operatic sound will not change any time soon.

"The sound will always be the same but we want to keep giving people something unique through new material," he said.

"Even when we do covers, we adapt the songs to fit our voices – musical theatre tells a story through song and we just want to keep doing that."

Collabro's album will have four new tracks, including two Christmas covers.

The book will tell of each band member's life story and experience on Britain's Got Talent.

Basingstoke nursery delivers top free education

A Basingstoke nursery has scooped a top award for its free early education and care for two-year-olds.

Little Me Day Nursery, in the Skyline Plaza, won the Nursery World 2014 award for two-year-old provision last Tuesday, November 4.

It recognised the nursery's ability to deliver the government initiative.

Currently the UK government states all three and four-year-olds are entitled to 570 hours of free education or childcare a year however, two-year-olds are also entitled if the family is on income support, Jobseeker's Allowance or support through the Immigration and Asylum Act.

Little Me Nursery founder Many Khaira said: "Having experienced nursery provision as a parent, I wanted to create a caring, sharing, 'go the extra mile' environment, but with more professionalism and attention-to-detail than is often the case."

"I have a great team and we like to implement ideas and initiatives which support parents as well as our children."

Nursery World said it "makes a real difference for young children and their families, providing emotional and practical care above and beyond the official requirements of the scheme".

Toxic waste may be stored near Tadley

RADIOACTIVE waste from nuclear submarines could be stored in Aldermaston near Tadley before it is safe enough to dispose of after 2040.

The Ministry of Defence has shortlisted Atomic Weapons Establishment (AWE) sites at Aldermaston and Burghfield as potential places to stow parts of 27 military submarines to be dismantled - because they have reached the end of their working life.

A public consultation is to be held in Tadley next Saturday. Tadley councillor Robert Tate said: "I think it is right that anyone should be concerned about the disposal of nuclear waste.

"Whether the concern is justified is the more important thing.

"Certainly the record of security and care for the environment is high in this country with these matters.

"Whilst I think people should be interested and have some level of concern, I don't think it is a major issue."

Angie Zelter, the founder of protest group, Action AWE, said: "I am very concerned.

"Waste management is in a terrible state and cannot be achieved safely."

Other sites being considered are Sellafield in west Cumbria, Chapelcross in Dumfriesshire - both owned by the Nuclear Decommissioning Authority - and Capenhurst in Cheshire, run by Capenhurst Nuclear Services.

The bulk of the submarine would be recycled and the remaining radioactive level waste stored until it can be safely moved to a geological disposal facility after 2040.

Minister for defence equipment, support and technology, Philip Dunne, said: "When the submarines in the Royal Navy fleet reach the end of their lives we need to dispose of them in a way that is safe, secure and environmentally sound.

"This open and transparent public consultation process provides the opportunity to work closely with local communities near to potential sites to listen carefully to their views with the aim of delivering a solution that achieves these objectives."

After the consultations a report will be published by the MoD before a site is selected.

MP refuses to speak on destruction of expenses records

BASINGSTOKE MP Maria Miller refused to comment on the destruction of MPs expense claims, revealed last week.

It was discovered all records of expense claims pre-2010 had been shredded by House of Commons authorities - meaning there can be no full investigation into Mrs Miller's expenses.

When asked by the Observer about the destruction of the records Mrs Miller declined to comment.

In April, Mrs Miller was forced to resign from the cabinet after allegations she wrongly claimed thousands of pounds in mortgage payments on a home lived in by her parents.

Labour's parliamentary candidate for Basingstoke, Cllr Paul Harvey said: "It's an absolute scandal and disgrace.

"Maria's silence simply adds more insult."

He added: "She has broken her contract with the people of Basingstoke.

"Basingstoke deserves better."

John Bercow, the speaker of the House of Commons, will face fresh questioning over the destruction of the records.

In 2009 it was revealed by The Daily Telegraph that wrongful expense claims among MPs was rife for years.

Move to help tenants with housing problems

A NEW relationship between the borough council and housing associations is to be set up in a bid to solve tenants' problems.

At a scrutiny committee meeting last week, November 4, councillors argued registered social landlords (RSLs) are not easily held accountable for housing problems, meaning they often go to councillors for solutions.

They suggested that a stronger bond between the two should be launched.

Councillor Paul Harvey, of Norden, brought up an example of Sentinel Housing Association.

He said: "Where is the tenant panel supporting resident's concerns? Where is the policy?"

"Sentinel's board make huge decisions, where is the council's relationship?"

He added: "Some of these RSLs no longer talk about tenants but talk about customers."

"They are now paying customers that they deliver services to. They no longer have a broader social responsibility."

The aim of the meeting was to adopt a new structure to improve links between the council and registered social landlords so tenant's issues could be dealt with easier.

Councillor Seán Keating, of South Ham, said: "My work as a councillor is dealing with tenant's problems.

"Some houses have been badly designed, some have problems with damp - some people get ill from the damp."

"Some are badly maintained and therefore tenants go to their councillors to sort out the problem."

"Most of my work is dealing with housing association problems, usually exacerbated by the management."

He added: "There are constant repeated problems, we do need a protocol, an understanding with housing associations about tenant panels and we need the housing association to realise that we have a legitimate role in society."

Councillor Graham Falconer commented: "What can we do if an RSL fails in service? That is something that concerns me."

"We need a solution if we have a non-performing RSL."

Councillor Terri Reid proposed a workshop be arranged so problems tenants have could be discussed with RSLs and a better line of communication could be set up.

Council officers are organising dates for a meeting.

Volunteers give old people's home a refurb

AN ELDERLY people's home in Popley got a makeover from a group of young people last month.

The 16 to 25-year-olds refurbished the library, buggy store and reception at Abbey Road, in Popley Way.

The project was part of a Prince's Trust 12-week personal development community project which helps young people gain qualifications and practical skills - especially those out of employment or those who have troubled backgrounds.

The Prince's Trust Team leader, Hayley Drinkwater, said: "The team have worked brilliantly together."

"They've interacted really well with the residents and it's been great to see them growing in confidence."

The group of 11 raised £490 by packing bags in Brighton Hill's ASDA to buy equipment and materials for the project.

They then redecorated the home for over 55s during the scheme, which ran from October 20 to October 31.

Project coordinator Toni Snarley said: "We can't thank the members of The Prince's Trust team programme enough."

"They've done a great job and everyone at Abbey Court is really pleased with the results."

The Basingstoke programme was run by Hampshire Fire and Rescue Service.

OCT will give accurate diagnosis:

- AMD
- Diabetic Maculopathy
- Macular Hole
- Epiretinal Membrane
- Early detection of Glaucoma

*It is estimated that approximately 2% of people over the age of 40 will have Glaucoma.

*Statistics obtained from The International Glaucoma Association.

What is an OCT scan?

This practice has invested in the very latest OCT scanning technology.

An Optical Coherence Tomography (OCT) scan is a unique test which uses near-infrared light reflected off the retina to produce a high resolution 3-Dimensional scan of the retina and associated structures.

It is particularly useful in the assessment of patients with AMD, Diabetic Maculopathy, early detection of Glaucoma and the management of these diseases. The test is non invasive, quick and entirely painless.

Am I at risk of Glaucoma?

Are you over 40?
Do you have a family history of Glaucoma?
Are you short sighted?
Do you have diabetes?
Are you of African-Caribbean origin?

If the answer is yes to any of these questions, then you are at an increased risk and should definitely have your eyes tested regularly.*

Why has this practice invested in OCT?

We believe this advanced imagery allows us to detect and monitor early stages of diseases and as this examination is not available under the NHS, we make an additional charge for this scan. Please ask for further details.

This assessment of your eyes using OCT Technology will give us the most accurate diagnosis possible and help us give you the best advice to protect your sight and the health of your eyes.

Your eyes deserve the benefits of cutting edge technology available at this practice.

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Audi
Vorsprung durch Technik

It's one thing to have a vision; quite another to make it reality. But that's just what we achieved with the all new Audi TT. From the drawing board to the road, we refused to compromise our original design. So the lines of the finished car are exactly the same as the ones you'll see in the designer's very first sketch.

Landing 15th November.

Install a water softener and banish limescale!

Hard water is something we are all used to in the South, although most of us have got used to putting up with it, many do not realise that you can do something about it. It furs up our heating systems, causing breakdowns, makes it more expensive to heat our homes and damages our appliances.

The other problem with limescale is the constant cleaning of showerheads, shower screens, stainless steel sinks, the whole house can suffer where water is concerned. Limescale aggravates skin problems such as eczema and psoriasis.

With a water softener no limescale will get into the house, which means you will have to do less cleaning, stop buying limescale-related products, cut washing powder use by up to 75% and have less chance of large bills for potential future problems with your heating system and appliance breakdowns. If you were to purchase an ordinary softener you would have quite a large machine, which requires you to set clocks and lug around a 25kg bag of salt. The TwinTec S3 is different. It is small, requires no electricity and uses block salt (like two house bricks) instead of heavy bags. Harvey Softeners has been manufacturing softeners in this area for more than 30 years. Kevin Goody (UK Water Softeners) is one of Harvey's top TwinTec dealers and was voted number two in the country last year.

Why is Kevin so successful?

He puts it down to extensive marketing, having a great plumber with over 30 years of experience installing water softeners, good customer satisfaction and recommendations.

Kevin has installed 4100 water softeners in homes in this area over the last eighteen years and arranges everything from initial survey to installation.

Get in touch

If you have an old water softener trade it in for something smaller and more efficient by calling Kevin Goody on: 01276 27924 without obligation. Email: kevingoody@uk-water-softeners.co.uk or visit our websites:

Kevin Goody also welcomes trade enquiries.

Top dealer award

Kevin Goody (UK Water Softeners) was voted the number 2 TwinTec dealer in the country at an awards event in Cyprus this month.

This is the fourth year in a row that he has achieved this accolade and over the last 19 years he has never dropped out of the top three dealers.

Kevin has more than 4,500 water softener customers locally spanning over the last 19 years, Kevin is seen obtaining his award from Harvey Bowden owner of Harvey Softeners Ltd and TwinTec dealer/manager Sarah Goody (Kevin's daughter). Kevin's son Andrew is also a TwinTec service engineer.

New customers come from recommendations from existing customers, newspaper adverts, the internet and leaflets. He has 14 Google reviews and 46 independent testimonials on his website.

Kevin also employs James who delivers 20 tons of block salt per month to his customers. He also employs a plumber Rob who installed more than 6,500 water softeners over the last 25 years and used to work for the manufacturers.

If you would like to have soft water in your home either look at the website www.uk-water-softeners.co.uk or ring Kevin Goody direct on 01276 27924

Manfreds' R&B beats

BRITISH R&B favourites The Manfreds, made up of former members of 1960s group Manfred Mann, come to The Anvil next Friday.

The new group started up in 1991 and have been touring extensively ever since, as they perform their well known classics including 'Do Wah Diddy Diddy', '5-4-3-2-1' and 'Mighty Quinn'.

And original band members Paul Jones, Mike d'Abo, Mike Hugg and Tom McGuinness will be joined by Rob Townsend, Marcus Cliffe and Simon Currie on stage at the Basingstoke show.

"We'll play all the Manfred Mann hits, plus a couple of album tracks," said Tom, the group's guitarist.

"We'll also feature a couple of Paul's solo hits, and we'll also do Mike d'Abo's hit compositions 'Build Me Up Buttercup' and 'Handbags and Gladrags'.

"It's a night packed with hits, and we always get a great response from The Anvil audience."

African keyboard player who performed in the group.

They recorded three number one singles and 10 other top-10s in the '60s before disbanding in 1969.

Tom continued: "I joined in 1963, and Manfred Mann broke up in 1969 after about 16 hits.

"We got back together for my birthday party in 1991, and have been playing regularly together since then.

"At first I wanted to write film screenplays but veered off into music when the opportunity arose, and never regretted it. Music is such fun, but also a serious business."

Tickets for next week's show cost £26.40, and starts at 7.45pm.

What's on in HAMPSHIRE NEWS

Armatrading at The Anvil

SINGER, songwriter and guitarist Joan Armatrading is embarking on her first world solo tour, which comes to The Anvil tomorrow evening.

Joan's career has spanned more than 40 years, in which time she has released 18 studio albums and performed countless shows all over the world.

But Joan has never done a tour of full scale solo concerts before, so has decided to put that right in what will be her last ever major tour.

"It's not my final tour, it's my final major tour," said Joan. "I do want to perform still but my tours are very long."

"After this tour when I do any kind of performing concerts it will be on a short tour basis, so no longer than a few weeks for instance."

"And this will be the first time I am doing a world tour solo, that is without a band, just me on acoustic and electric guitar and playing the piano."

"The audiences in Basingstoke have been really good and I'm expecting them to sing along to the songs, as they have done before, when I'm there."

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Joan released her first album 'Whatever's for Us' back in 1972, with her most recent offering 'Starlight' being released in 2012.

Four of her records made it into the top-10 in the UK album charts, with the 1980 release 'Me Myself I' being the most successful by reaching number five.

And even though she is cutting back on touring, Joan has no plans to slow down with recording new material.

"I will always be writing and recording songs until my dying days," Joan added.

Tomorrow's show starts at 7.30pm, and tickets cost £30.50.

For more details or to book, call the box office on 01256 844244 or go to anvilarts.org.uk.

PHILIP GLASS ENSEMBLE

They include music created for an unrealised Robert Wilson project for the Los Angeles Olympic Games; excerpts from the seminal Music in 12 Parts, which resonate alongside key works from the 1980s including the instrumental last act of The Photographer, and music written for Godfrey Reggio's cult film Koyaanisqatsi. Music in Similar Motion, dizzying and determined, takes the story back to 1969.

"The programme begins with Haydn's String Quartet Op 54 no 2. Haydn's works represent the peak of classical string quartet writing, and this C major quartet is one of his very best.

Korean car maker offers up extra options in the booming compact crossover market

Kia's new models in the mix

KIA'S all-new Soul range has been expanded with the arrival of two high specification models - named the Soul Mixx and Maxx.

The two models, which have hit car showrooms, aim to create an impressive presence on the road.

Their 18-inch alloy wheels, urban styling pack and LED daytime running lights set them apart from the very first Kia Souls that hit the road in 2008.

The range set out to prove Kia could design and build excellent cars, while keeping the focus on practicality and value for money.

It became a market leader in the United States and China, before hitting the dizzy heights of a top-five car in its class.

The 2014 second-generation version of the Kia Soul takes advantage of the boom in the compact crossover market, with global annual sales forecast to rise to more than 600,000 by next year.

Kia's all-new Soul is designed to be stylish while taking on a SUV-like appearance.

All versions of the models are front-wheel-drive and five-door crossovers.

However, researchers at the South Korean manufacturer aimed to make the most out of the fact that while customers want the looks, they do not want the taxation and higher fuel consumption that four-wheel drives entail.

Standard equipment on both models includes a premium Infinity sound system, eight-inch touchscreen satellite navigation, leather upholstery, heated front seats and automatic air-conditioning.

The Mixx comes with contrasting body and roof colours, coloured door mirrors and a reversing camera.

In addition the Soul Maxx includes a smart key entry system with engine stop/start button, auto-dimming rear-view mirror, front and rear parking sensors and panoramic sunroof.

The Soul Mixx is available in 1.6 CRDi six-speed manual and automatic versions as well as a 1.6 GDi manual with prices starting from £18,150.

Pricing on the Soul Maxx starts from £19,950 and is available in six-speed manual 1.6 GDi and 1.6 CRDi options.

For more information about both models, visit kia.co.uk.

Lightning struck down by Bison before Phoenix rise to victory against The Herd

Hartley Wintney keep up their unbeaten run

HARTLEY Wintney extended their unbeaten run to four games on Saturday, as they held Ashford Town to a goalless draw.

Ashford had failed to win just two matches in the Combined Counties Premier league before Saturday, and currently sit in second place in the standings.

Wintney remain seventh in the table with 26 points, three behind sixth-placed Spelthorne Sports.

It has been a solid start to the league campaign for Wintney, having won eight, drawn two and lost five of their opening 15 fixtures.

Meanwhile, Whitchurch United enjoyed an entertaining game at home to Christchurch, with the Jam Boys eventually winning 5-3.

Goals from Jack Garner, Josh Harfield, Daniel Phillips, Lerone Plummer and Ben Thomson helped Whitchurch to victory.

Whitchurch remain top of the Wessex Premier League after Saturday's result, with a four point advantage over second-placed Moneyfields.

Tadley Calvea didn't play on Saturday, but stay top of the Wessex Division One table with 22 points from eight games.

All three teams are back in action this Saturday afternoon, as Wintney travel to Guildford City, Whitchurch host Brockenhurst and Calvea make the trip to fellow unbeaten side Cowes Sports.

IT was another mixed weekend for Basingstoke Bison as once again they managed to win one and lose one of their two matches.

The weekend started well with a 3-2 victory against Milton Keynes Lightning at home on Saturday, before Sunday saw Bison thrashed 8-3 away to Manchester Phoenix.

Saturday's game saw Bison start in top form as they dominated the first period of play, and were rewarded with Joe Greener's powerplay effort to take the lead.

Bison continued to push forward with Grant Rounding and Tomas Karpov both scoring for the hosts in the second period to give them a three goal advantage heading into the final 20 minutes.

Lightning fought back in the third period, as Blaz Emersic fired in two powerplay strikes to make for a tight conclusion to the game.

But Bison held on to claim the win, and avenge their loss to Lightning from last month.

Bison looked to take their winning form north to Manchester on Sunday.

For the first period it looked like they may be in for the win. The Herd had a two goal lead after the opening 20 minutes, courtesy of strikes from Karpov and Michael Wales.

But that was as good as it got for Bison, as Phoenix quickly levelled in the second period thanks to Robin Kovar and Frankie Bakrlik.

Bison grabbed a third with Ciaran Long but were once again pegged back by Phoenix, this time through Michael Psurny.

The scores were tied at 3-3 heading into the final period, before Phoenix went on to score five unanswered goals to secure a convincing win.

Phoenix's player/coach Tony Hand, Adam Walker and Ben Wood each scored one with Psurny poking two home to complete his hat-trick in a dominant end to the match.

The results leave Bison second in the English Ice Hockey Premier League standings with 21 points, six behind current leaders Telford Tigers.

They are back in action this weekend, hosting Swindon Wildcats on Saturday before making the trip to Telford on Sunday.

Sport Bites

Ladies lose

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town Ladies were knocked out of the Southern Region League Cup on Sunday, after losing 3-2 to Woodley United at home.

It comes after Basingstoke had recorded their third win of the season in the league the previous week, beating Mansfield Road Ladies 2-1.

They currently sit seventh in the Southern Region Women's Football League standings with nine points, six behind leaders Maidenhead United.

Basingstoke's attention now turns to the Hampshire county cup, which sees them travel to face Andover New Street Ladies on Sunday.

Rose struggles

GOLF: North Hampshire golfer Justin Rose endured a frustrating tournament at the HSBC Champions event in Shanghai, as he could only finish in a tie for 48th.

Rounds of 72, 71, 76 and 74 meant that Rose finished five over par, tied with American Bill Haas, German Marcel Siem, China's Liang Wen-Chong and Chilean Felipe Aguilar.

He ended the tournament 16 shots behind winner Bubba Watson, who finished on 11 under par.

Hockey delight

HOCKEY: Goals from Sam Dean, Jed Mills, Ben Shaugnessey and David Stones helped Basingstoke Hockey Club to a 4-0 win at Southampton on Saturday.

It was Basingstoke's first win since October 18, and puts them seventh in the South Hockey League Hampshire/Surrey 1 standings.

Basingstoke are back in action this Saturday as they host Bournemouth.

'Stoke bidding to get back to winning ways after four-game losing streak

BASINGSTOKE RFC will be hoping for an upturn in form when they return to action away to Havant this Saturday.

'Stoke have lost their last four matches in the London 1 South division, and have slipped to second bottom after the opening nine games.

The season had got off to a strong start for Basingstoke, as they won four of their opening five games to put themselves in title contention.

But a 15-point penalty for fielding an ineligible player under a false name in their defeat at Guildford on September 13 dropped them way down the table.

Their last win came on October 4 - two days after receiving the penalty - when they thrashed Gosport and Fareham 60-15.

Since then losses to Brighton, Sidcup, Charlton Park and Hove have meant that 'Stoke are now just a point ahead of bottom side Cobham, and 27 behind league leaders Wimbledon.

After Saturday's trip to Havant, Basingstoke then host Twickenham the following week before getting a match off on November 29.

FLOOD KEEPS FA CUP DREAM ALIVE

CHRIS Flood's second half header kept Basingstoke Town's FA Cup run on the rails last Saturday, forcing a replay against Vanarama Conference side AFC Telford United.

Last weekend's 1-1 draw in front of a packed Soccer AM Stadium saw Town go into the hat for the second round.

And the winner of next Tuesday's replay will face Sky Bet League One high-flyers Bristol City on December 6.

Rod McDonald's deflected free-kick gave Telford the lead on 18 minutes.

But Flood headed home just after the break to level the tie sending most of the 1,251 supporters into raptures.

A trip to Ashton Gate would be the ultimate reward for Jason Bristow's side, who battled their way through three rounds of qualifying to make the first round.

However, Bristow is eager for the tie not to become a distraction as they turn their attentions back to the Vanarama Conference South and the visit of St Albans City on Saturday.

Bristow said: "It is a fantastic incentive but we can't get too carried away."

"We have got a big game on Saturday to focus on and then the replay before we know who

By Jack Johnson

jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk is going to be facing them.

"It's not something we can talk too much about at the moment unfortunately."

Town are currently second in the Vanarama Conference South with two games in hand over leaders Boreham Wood.

Striker Lloyd Macklin, who missed Saturday's FA Cup tie with a hamstring injury, could return this weekend, while Manny Williams serves the last game of his ban.

Liam Enver-Marum is unlikely to shake off a knee injury before Saturday but misses the game through suspension anyway.

St Albans are currently 14th in the table but only four points adrift of the play-offs and Bristow is fully aware of the dangers the Hertfordshire side pose.

He added: "They are a good side, they score goals and they are going to be a very difficult outfit for us."

"We will have to make sure we focus on Saturday and not Tuesday."

"If we can do that and come through the match unscathed then hopefully we will have another three points."
